DESCRIPTION OF INSTITUTION

Western State Agency, Inc., a one-bank holding company located in Devils Lake, North Dakota, wholly owns Western State Bank. Western State Bank received a Satisfactory rating at its previous FDIC Performance Evaluation dated October 19, 2020, based on Interagency Intermediate Small Institution Examination Procedures. The bank demonstrated satisfactory performance under both the Lending and Community Development tests.

The bank continues to operate from its main office in Devils Lake, as well as from nine full-service branches in North Dakota and Arizona. Since the prior evaluation, Western State Bank relocated its Fargo, North Dakota, branch and opened a new branch in Phoenix, Arizona. In addition, the former bank subsidiary Western Equipment Finance became a bank division in 2022. Western Equipment Finance has offices in Devils Lake and Marshall, Minnesota; however, it originates commercial and agricultural equipment loans and leases throughout the U.S.

Western State Bank offers a variety of credit products, including commercial, home mortgage, agricultural, and consumer loans. In addition, the bank offers loan products through various government-sponsored programs and sells home mortgage loans to secondary market investors. Commercial lending continues to be the institution's primary business focus, followed by home mortgage lending. Western State Bank also offers a full line of traditional deposit services, including checking, savings, and certificates of deposit accounts.

As of September 30, 2023, Western State Bank reported total assets of $2.1 billion, total loans of $1.9 billion, and total deposits of $1.8 billion; the following table illustrates the loan portfolio. Examiners did not identify any financial, legal, or other impediments that affect the bank's ability to meet the credit needs of its assessment areas.

DESCRIPTION OF ASSESSMENT AREAS

Western State Bank continues to operate in three assessment areas, two in North Dakota and one in Arizona. The Phoenix-Mesa-Chandler, AZ Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) is the sole Arizona assessment area, whereas the North Dakota assessment areas include the Devils Lake and Fargo, ND-MN MSA assessment areas. Ratings are assigned for the states of North Dakota and Arizona. Further, 2015 American Community Survey (ACS) and 2020 U.S. Census data are referenced throughout this evaluation since the bank's performance spans two sets of census data. Activities related to 2020 and 2021 utilize 2015 ACS data, whereas activities for 2022 and beyond use 2020 U.S. Census data. Additional information regarding the assessment areas and rated areas is presented later in the evaluation.

SCOPE OF EVALUATION

General Information

This evaluation covers the period from the prior evaluation dated October 19, 2020, to the current evaluation dated November 27, 2023. Examiners used Interagency Large Institution Examination Procedures to evaluate Western State Bank's CRA performance, which include the Lending, Investment, and Service Tests. The aforementioned tests are used to determine the bank's overall rating, as well as its ratings in North Dakota and Arizona. Banks must achieve at least a Low Satisfactory rating under the Lending Test to obtain an overall Satisfactory rating. Refer to the Appendices for information on each test.

Examiners used full-scope examination procedures to assess the bank's performance in each assessment area. As depicted in the following table, the majority of lending and deposit activity occurs in North Dakota, whereas the majority of the branch activity occurs in Arizona. Therefore, examiners gave equal weight to the bank's performance in North Dakota and Arizona when assessing the bank's overall performance.

Activities Reviewed

Bank records indicated that the lending focus and product mix remained consistent throughout the evaluation period. As noted earlier, the bank's primary lending focus is commercial lending, followed by home mortgage lending.

The evaluation considered all home mortgage loans reported on the institution's 2020, 2021, and 2022 Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) Loan Application Registers. Specifically, the institution reported 850 loans totaling $248.5 million in 2020, 741 loans totaling $235.1 million in 2021, and 319 loans totaling $169.4 million in 2022. In addition, examiners analyzed all small business and small farm loans reported under the CRA data collection requirements for 2022, which was the first year that Western State Bank was required to report this data. For small business lending, the bank originated 6,500 loans totaling $536.6 million in 2022.

The bank's 2022 small business lending performance is not representative of its performance during the evaluation period due to Western Equipment Finance becoming a bank division in 2022. Therefore, examiners also analyzed all 128 small business loans totaling $35.2 million that were originated, renewed, or extended in 2021 for the Assessment Area Concentration and Geographic Distribution performance criteria. For the Borrower Profile criterion, examiners selected a sample of 49 small business loans totaling $14.3 million originated within the assessment areas in 2021. The 2021 small business loan analysis did not include loans that were originated, renewed, or extended and subsequently paid off during the evaluation period as this information was not readily available. Finally, examiners did not include the small farm lending data in this evaluation since agricultural lending is not a lending focus of the bank; however, examiners did analyze this data and did not identify any concerns.

HMDA aggregate lending, 2015 ACS, and 2020 U.S Census data provided a standard of comparison for the home mortgage loans reviewed; examiners placed more weight on the comparison to aggregate lending data since it is typically a better indicator of market conditions and loan demand. In addition, D&B data for 2021 and 2022 provided a standard of comparison for the small business loans reviewed; the 2022 CRA aggregate data was not available to use as a standard of comparison. Examiners did not identify any trends between the 2020, 2021, and 2022 HMDA data or the 2021 and 2022 small business data that materially affected conclusions. Therefore, only 2022 HMDA and small business data is presented for the Geographic Distribution and Borrower Profile criteria.

For the Lending Test, the small business lending performance received the most weight when arriving at conclusions since commercial lending is the bank's primary lending focus. While both the number and dollar volume of loans are presented, examiners emphasized performance by number of loans because the number of loans is a better indicator of the number of businesses and individuals served.

Community development lending, qualified investments, and community development services were considered from the prior evaluation dated October 19, 2020, through the current evaluation dated November 27, 2023. Furthermore, investments that were made before the prior evaluation and remain outstanding are included at the current book values as prior period investments. The Investment Test also included an analysis of the institution's responsiveness to opportunities for qualified investments, as well as the use of any innovative or complex investments.

For the Service Test, examiners analyzed community development services, the innovativeness of the services, including whether they serve low- or moderate-income customers in new ways or serve groups of customers not previously served, and the degree to which they serve low- or moderate-income areas or individuals. Examiners also considered the institution's record of opening and closing branch offices, the hours of operations, and the accessibility and use of alternative systems for delivering retail banking services in low- and moderate-income geographies and to low- and moderate-income individuals.

CONCLUSIONS ON PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

LENDING TEST

Western State Bank demonstrated good performance under the Lending Test, which is consistent with its performance in both North Dakota and Arizona. While the Borrower Profile performance is adequate and the Assessment Area Concentration performance is poor, the other factors offset this performance.

Lending Activity

Lending levels reflect good responsiveness to the credit needs of the assessment areas. The bank is an active lender by originating or purchasing a significant volume of small business and home mortgage loans. Based on 2022 HMDA aggregate data, Western State Bank ranked 135th, by number, out of 1,024 lenders for originating home mortgage loans in its assessment areas. Examiners were unable to determine how the bank's small business performance ranked among all assessment area lenders since the 2022 CRA aggregate data was not available.

Western State Bank's net loan-to-deposit ratio averaged 100.3 percent over the past 14 calendar quarters; however, this does not include all lending activity as home mortgage loans sold on the secondary market are not reflected on the bank's balance sheet. Since the prior evaluation, the bank sold 1,117 loans totaling $282.2 million. Secondary market lending is responsive to the credit needs of the assessment areas because it provides long-term home mortgage financing.

Assessment Area Concentration

A small percentage of loans are made in Western State Bank's assessment areas as depicted in the table below. However, this performance had little impact on the overall Lending Test rating due to the following mitigating factors. The bank's 2022 CRA Self-Assessment noted, which examiners corroborated, that lending inside its assessment areas significantly declined between 2021 and 2022 due to Western Equipment Finance becoming a bank division. When analyzing its Assessment Area Concentration, the bank removed all Western Equipment Finance loans and the results indicated that a majority of its core lending is occurring within the assessment areas. At the prior evaluation, a substantial majority of the bank's 221 small business loans (86.4 percent) were made within its assessment areas. The bank's level of small business lending inside its assessment areas increased in 2022 by number and dollar amount, and its 2021 lending volume compares favorably to the peer banks included in the 2021 CRA aggregate data. As previously noted, the 2021 small business loan universe does not include loans that were paid off during the evaluation period, so the bank's level of lending was likely higher than what is reflected in the table. Given this information, Western State Bank appears to be meeting the small business credit needs of its assessment areas. Lastly, a high percentage of the bank's home mortgage loans are made within the bank's assessment areas, demonstrating a commitment to the assessment areas' credit needs.

Geographic Distribution

The geographic distribution of loans reflects good penetration throughout the assessment areas, which is consistent with the bank's North Dakota performance. The bank's performance in Arizona was excellent, which received equal weight in the analysis; however, it did not warrant overall excellent performance. Examiners focused on the percentage of loans in low- and moderate-income census tracts as applicable. Detailed discussion of the bank's performance under this criterion is included in the applicable State and assessment area sections of the evaluation.

Borrower Profile

The distribution of borrowers reflects adequate penetration among retail customers of different income levels and business customers of different sizes, which is consistent with the bank's performance in both North Dakota and Arizona. Examiners focused on the percentage of small business loans to businesses with gross annual revenues of $1 million or less and the percentage of home mortgage loans to low- and moderate-income borrowers. Detailed discussion of the bank's performance under this criterion is included in the applicable State and assessment area sections of the evaluation.

Innovative or Flexible Lending Practices

Western State Bank uses innovative and/or flexible lending practices in order to serve the assessment areas' credit needs. The bank used flexible lending programs offered through various government-sponsored agencies, which are outlined in the table below. Most of these programs, with the exception of a few state-specific programs, are offered in all of the assessment areas and are designed to assist borrowers who might not otherwise qualify for credit. These programs require extra effort and expertise by bank personnel and meet a defined need compared to conventional loans. Further, the bank utilized programs that provided relief to businesses struggling due to the coronavirus (COVID) pandemic, including 1,018 loans totaling $87.6 million under the Small Business Administration's Paycheck Protection Program in 2021 and 3 loans totaling $1.8 million through the Bank of North Dakota's COVID PACE Recovery Program in 2020. Finally, the bank used flexible lending practices within its Western Equipment Finance division as it does not rely on revenues when making credit decisions unless the loan relationship is over $350,000 or the loan amount is over $250,000. Since becoming a bank division, Western Equipment Finance has originated 6,910 loans under $250,000 totaling $412.5 million.

Community Development Loans

Western State Bank has made a relatively high level of community development loans, which is consistent with its performance in North Dakota. Stronger performance was noted in Arizona, which received equal weight in the analysis, but it did not warrant overall outstanding performance. The bank originated 54 community development loans totaling $190.5 million during the evaluation period, which represents 9.2 percent of total assets and 10.4 percent of net loans. These ratios decreased since the previous evaluation when community development loans represented 15.1 percent of total assets and 17.0 percent of net loans. The level of community development lending also decreased from the prior evaluation, which reported 1,017 loans totaling $220.0 million; however, the prior evaluation included a significant level of COVID-related loans. Examiners compared the institution's level of community development lending to two similarly situated institutions, which revealed the bank's performance was better. Specifically, the similarly situated institutions' community development loans ranged from 2.7 to 4.4 percent of their total assets and 4.5 to 5.3 percent of their net loans. Finally, Western State Bank was responsive to the community development lending opportunities available in its assessment areas. The tables below illustrate the institution's community development lending activity by rated area and by year.

INVESTMENT TEST

Western State Bank demonstrated adequate performance under the Investment Test, which is consistent with its performance in both North Dakota and Arizona.

Investment and Grant Activity

Western State Bank has an adequate level of qualified community development investments and grants, although rarely in a leadership position, particularly those that are not routinely provided by private investors. The bank purchased, retained, or donated 233 qualified investments totaling $3.0 million during the evaluation period, which represents 0.1 percent of total assets and 6.6 percent of total securities. These ratios are similar to the prior evaluation when qualified investments represented 0.1 percent of total assets and 7.5 percent of total securities. In addition, the level of qualified investments increased from the prior evaluation, which reported 170 qualified investments totaling $1.7 million. Finally, a review of the similarly situated institutions revealed that qualified investments ranged from 0.5 to 0.6 percent of their total assets and 1.4 to 4.9 percent of their total asecurities. The tables below illustrate the institution's qualified investment activity by rated area and by year.

Responsiveness to Credit and Community Development Needs

Western State Bank exhibits adequate responsiveness to credit and community economic development needs. Further details are located in the separate assessment area sections of the evaluation.

Community Development Initiatives

Western State Bank rarely uses innovative and/or complex investments to support community development initiatives. While the bank's investments are beneficial to the needs of the assessment areas, they are noncomplex and routinely provided by private investors.

SERVICE TEST

Western State Bank demonstrated good performance under the Service Test, which is consistent with its performance in both North Dakota and Arizona.

Accessibility of Delivery Systems

Western State Bank's delivery systems are accessible to essentially all portions of its assessment areas. The bank's service delivery systems include 10 offices and six ATMs located within its assessment areas; the tables below illustrate the overall distribution of branches, ATMs, and population by census tract income level based on 2015 ACS and 2020 U.S. Census data. Western State Bank also offers alternative delivery systems that enhance accessibility to financial services that are readily accessible throughout the assessment areas, including to low- and moderate-income income individuals. These systems include internet and mobile banking, the ability to open deposit accounts or apply for loans online, bill pay, mobile check deposit, electronic periodic statements, and prepaid cards, among others.

The CDC activities are expected to directly benefit low- and moderate-income groups, and the investment dollars should not represent an undue risk on the banking organization.

Metropolitan and Micropolitan Statistical Areas are the two categories of CBSAs.

Housing Unit: Includes a house, an apartment, a mobile home, a group of rooms, or a single room that is occupied as separate living quarters.

Limited-Scope Review: A limited scope review is accomplished when examiners do not complete all applicable interagency examination procedures for an assessment area.

It is administered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service. The U.S. Treasury Department distributes low-income housing tax credits to housing credit agencies through the Internal Revenue Service. The housing agencies allocate tax credits on a competitive basis.

Developers who acquire, rehabilitate, or construct low-income rental housing may keep their tax credits. Or, they may sell them to corporations or investor groups, who, as owners of these properties, will be able to reduce their own federal tax payments. The credit can be claimed annually for ten consecutive years. For a project to be eligible, the developer must set aside a specific percentage of units for occupancy by low-income residents. The set-aside requirement remains throughout the compliance period, usually 30 years.

Market Share: The number of loans originated and purchased by the institution as a percentage of the aggregate number of loans originated and purchased by all reporting lenders in the metropolitan area/assessment area.

Median Income: The median income divides the income distribution into two equal parts, one having incomes above the median and other having incomes below the median.

The MSA comprises the central county or counties or equivalent entities containing the core, plus adjacent outlying counties having a high degree of social and economic integration with the central county or counties as measured through commuting.

Micropolitan Statistical Area: CBSA associated with at least one urbanized area having a population of at least 10,000, but less than 50,000.

Middle-Income: Individual income that is at least 80 percent and less than 120 percent of the area median income, or a median family income that is at least 80 and less than 120 percent in the case of a geography.

Moderate-Income: Individual income that is at least 50 percent and less than 80 percent of the area median income, or a median family income that is at least 50 and less than 80 percent in the case of a geography.

Multi-family: Refers to a residential structure that contains five or more units.

Nonmetropolitan Area (also known as non-MSA): All areas outside of metropolitan areas. The definition of nonmetropolitan area is not consistent with the definition of rural areas. Urban and rural classifications cut across the other hierarchies. For example, there is generally urban and rural territory within metropolitan and nonmetropolitan areas.

Owner-Occupied Units: Includes units occupied by the owner or co-owner, even if the unit has not been fully paid for or is mortgaged.

Qualified Investment: A lawful investment, deposit, membership share, or grant that has as its primary purpose community development.

Rated Area: A rated area is a state or multistate metropolitan area. For an institution with domestic branches in only one state, the institution's CRA rating would be the state rating. If an institution maintains domestic branches in more than one state, the institution will receive a rating for each state in which those branches are located. If an institution maintains domestic branches in two or more states within a multistate metropolitan area, the institution will receive a rating for the multistate metropolitan area.

Rural Area: Territories, populations, and housing units that are not classified as urban.

Small Business Investment Company (SBIC): SBICs are privately-owned investment companies which are licensed and regulated by the Small Business Administration (SBA). SBICs provide long-term loans and/or venture capital to small firms. Because money for venture or risk investments is difficult for small firms to obtain, SBA provides assistance to SBICs to stimulate and supplement the flow of private equity and long-term loan funds to small companies. Venture capitalists participate in the SBIC program to supplement their own private capital with funds borrowed at favorable rates through SBA's guarantee of SBIC debentures. These SBIC debentures are then sold to private investors. An SBIC's success is linked to the growth and profitability of the companies that it finances. Therefore, some SBICs primarily assist businesses with significant growth potential, such as new firms in innovative industries. SBICs finance small firms by providing straight loans and/or equity-type investments. This kind of financing gives them partial ownership of those businesses and the possibility of sharing in the companies' profits as they grow and prosper.

Small Business Loan: A loan included in "loans to small businesses" as defined in the Consolidated Report of Condition and Income (Call Report). These loans have original amounts of $1 million or less and are either secured by nonfarm nonresidential properties or are classified as commercial and industrial loans.

Small Farm Loan: A loan included in "loans to small farms" as defined in the instructions for preparation of the Consolidated Report of Condition and Income (Call Report). These loans have original amounts of $500,000 or less and are either secured by farmland, including farm residential and other improvements, or are classified as loans to finance agricultural production and other loans to farmers.

Underserved Middle-Income Nonmetropolitan Geographies: A nonmetropolitan middleincome geography will be designated as underserved if it meets criteria for population size, density, and dispersion indicating the area's population is sufficiently small, thin, and distant from a population center that the tract is likely to have difficulty financing the fixed costs of meeting essential community needs.

Upper-Income: Individual income that is 120 percent or more of the area median income, or a median family income that is 120 percent or more in the case of a geography.

Urban Area: All territories, populations, and housing units in urbanized areas and in places of 2,500 or more persons outside urbanized areas. More specifically, "urban" consists of territory, persons, and housing units in places of 2,500 or more persons incorporated as cities, villages, boroughs (except in Alaska and New York), and towns (except in the New England states, New York, and Wisconsin).

"Urban" excludes the rural portions of "extended cities"; census designated place of 2,500 or more persons; and other territory, incorporated or unincorporated, including in urbanized areas.
